

Pro Bono Council Application

Pro Bono Council Mission Statement:

In furtherance of Campbell Law School's mission and the acknowledgment that the practice of law is a profound calling, the mission of the Pro Bono Council at Campbell Law is to engage and educate students on the nature and importance of serving the underserved through:

- Creating a life-long commitment to pro bono work and volunteerism among Campbell Law students;
- Embracing Volunteerism and Community Service partnerships in the Raleigh area;
- Developing alliances and volunteering with organizations providing legal services to those in need; and
- Assisting lawyers who provide high quality, low-cost legal services to individuals in need

Terminology:

- Pro Bono - Voluntary legal services provided at no cost and given by a licensed NC attorney or under the supervision of a licensed NC attorney.
- Public Service/Community Service - Serving the community at large through skills gained through legal education as well as other talents and abilities in order to make the legal profession and the community a better place.

Importance of Pro Bono:

- Provides much needed legal services to the community
- Provides students with hands-on opportunities to develop legal skills
- Instills a sense of professional responsibility early in the students' careers
- Affirms the legal profession as a profession of service
- Enhances Campbell Law School's ties with the community and alumni
