

You are invited
April 24, 2020 8-5pm

Burn Rehabilitation: Foundations and Clinical Practice

Learning Objectives:

1. Understand basic concepts of wound management following burn injuries
2. Demonstrate common interventions and therapeutic modalities for burn scar management
3. Comprehend the relationship between cutaneous functional units and ROM loss
4. Understand appropriate splint fabrication and application techniques

Morrisville Conference Center, 5221 Paramount Parkway
Morrisville, NC 27560

REHABILITATION CARE

- Burn Injury: Incidence and Cause
- Classification of Burn by Type
- Classification of Burn by Depth of Injury
- Wound and Surgical Management
- Biomechanical Principles of Tissue Elongation
- Evaluation and Assessment
- Treatment: Mobility, Positioning, ROM, Scar Management Techniques, and Splinting
- Case Studies/Clinical lab

Registration link:

<http://www.cvent.com/d/3nq07t>

UNC
NORTH CAROLINA
JAYCEE BURN CENTER