

CHARACTER AND FITNESS CERTIFICATION

I have reviewed the Character and Fitness questions on my application to Campbell University School of Law and certify the following (initial one option in each category):

I. Disclosure of matters known at time of law school application (initial one).

1. When I submitted my law school application, I disclosed (in a full, complete, and accurate manner) all matters within the scope of the Character and Fitness questions.
2. When I submitted my law school application, I did not disclose (in a full, complete, and accurate manner) all matters within the scope of the Character and Fitness Questions, but I have previously disclosed all of those matters, together with relevant details, to the school.
3. When I submitted my law school application, I did not disclose (in a full, complete, and accurate manner) all matters within the scope of the Character and Fitness Questions. I now wish to amend my application (please see disclosure memo below*).

II. Disclosure of matters arising subsequent to law school application (initial one).

1. Subsequent to the submission of my law school application, no additional matters have occurred, within the scope of the Character and Fitness questions, that require disclosure.
2. Subsequent to the submission of my law school application, one or more matters have occurred, within the scope of the Character and Fitness questions, that require disclosure, but I have previously disclosed all of those matters, together with relevant details, to the school.
3. Subsequent to the submission of my law school application, one or more matters have occurred, within the scope of the Character and Fitness questions, that require disclosure. I have not previously disclosed all of those matters (or all relevant details of those matters). I now wish to make such disclosures (please see disclosure memo below*).

 If you checked either I.3 or II.3 above, your disclosure memo below should include a full statement of relevant facts of each matter, including (1) the organization, institution, entity, or jurisdiction with authority over the matter, (2) the charge(s), (3) the date(s), (4) the facts and circumstances surrounding the incident or event giving rise to the charge(s), and (5) the disposition (if known), including any reduced charges, fines, court costs, or other penalty. If the date(s) of the incident occurred more than 45 days before the date of this certification, the disclosure memo also must be accompanied by an explanation for the delay in disclosing the matter.*

I understand that I have a continuing obligation to report information within the scope of the Character and Fitness disclosure requirements as soon as the matter(s) occur.

My signature indicates this is a true and accurate record and that I understand this document will become part of my student file which will be submitted to the appropriate Board of Bar Examiners.
