

Coach Evin L. Grant

Coach Evin L. Grant serves as the Director of Policy, Strategy, and External Relations for the NC Department of Administration (NCDOA), developing and implementing policies and procedures for departments, initiatives, and task forces, across the State of North Carolina, under the direction of the Secretary of Administration. He also collaborates on statewide Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion program development, initiatives, and training and advises on employment, non-public education, technology, and more.

Before joining the NCDOA, Grant served as the Assistant Dean of Student Life and Pro Bono Opportunities at Campbell University Norman Adrian Wiggins School of Law. For more than a decade, he's had the opportunity to develop various skills and talents working in the private and public (nonprofit, federal, and state) sectors. From being a Magistrate Judge to working in engineering and patent law. As a student at Campbell Law School, he participated in the intramural Negotiations competition where he and his teammate placed among the top two teams, advancing to the regional competition in Miami Florida. Since 2018, Coach Grant has consistently coached the ABA Negotiations Team, with consistently high marks, with the 2020 Negotiation Team advancing to the national competition. Grant also coached the NFL/NBA Negotiations teams from 2022 to 2024 in the Tulane University Sports Negotiations Competitions in New Orleans.

Active in professional and civic communities, he is a former member of the NC Bar Association Minorities in the Profession Committee, a member of the NC Chapter of the National Conference of Black Lawyers, and was the 2020-2021 Capital City Lawyers Association President. Grant serves on several Wake County Bar Association committees, including the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Committee, Professionalism Committee, and Grievance Committee. At the start of 2024, Evin became a North Carolina State Bar Councilor, representing the Tenth Judicial District.

Grant holds a B.S. in Applied Criminology from NC State University and a JD from Campbell University's Norman Adrian Wiggins School of Law. He is licensed to practice law in North Carolina and at the Supreme Court of the United States.