

Justice Earls is seeking one current law student or graduate to serve as a law clerk in her chambers beginning in August of 2025 for a two-year term. Law clerks will work directly with Justice Earls and staff on all judicial matters, including drafting opinions, reviewing petitions, and preparing Justice Earls for oral argument. To apply, please submit the following materials to Angela Hardin, els@sc.nccourts.org:

- Resume
- Cover letter explaining your interest in working for Justice Earls
- Writing sample (no more than 20 pages double-spaced, or 10 pages single-spaced)
- Three letters of recommendation, with two coming from law school faculty (including clinical faculty)

Applications should be sent in by the deadline date of Monday, May 6, 2024, at the close of the business day, 5:00 p.m.

This clerkship opportunity is equally open to all qualified individuals. We strongly encourage applications from women, people of color, and bilingual and bicultural individuals, as well as members of the lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender communities. We also encourage applications from individuals with a demonstrated interest or experience in criminal law, constitutional law, and / or civil rights law. Applicants shall not be discriminated against because of race, religion, sex, national origin, ethnicity, age, disability, political affiliation, sexual orientation, gender identity, color, marital status, or medical condition. We encourage and will consider qualified applicants with arrest and conviction records.

Applicants with Disabilities: Reasonable accommodation will be made so that qualified disabled applicants may participate in the application process. If you seek accommodation, please advise at the time you apply.
