Purpose of Convocation

The definition of “Convocation” is a gathering. The College of Pharmacy & Health Sciences at Campbell University begins each new academic year with a convocation ceremony to gather all students together as a celebration of the accomplishments of those before us and the goals of those ahead of us.

Attendance

This year’s ceremony will be on Wednesday, September 6, at 10:00 a.m. in the Hobson Performance Center in D. Rich Hall. Graduate and professional classes for that morning are cancelled to allow these students to attend. Attendance is required. If you have extenuating circumstances that prohibit your attendance, please contact your program manager/coordinator as soon as possible.
